Advices from St. Petersburg say that General Komaroff recently informed the Government that the Afghans were advancing their outposts, and that the Russians remained in their former positions, and asked instructions. The Government replied that he should avoid any steps that might lead to a collision, and to remain strictly on the defensive.

General Grant Dead.

General Grant, after his long affliction, passed away peacefully and calmly at Mt. McGregor last Thursday. His death caused a profound sensation over the whole civilized world. His name will go down on the pages of history among the great Military Chieftains of the world, and as such the world will bestow its honors upon him. He was in his 64th year when he died, but he had a constitution which might have carried him beyond the fourscore years of life's limit.

The many evil things that were spoken against him during his eventful life, will now be hushed in death, and friends and enemies will unite in according to him wonderful genius combined with kindness of heart, and integrity of purpose. His remains will be buried next Friday, amidst great pomp and ceremony, mingled with genuine grief by thousands.

THE EVANGELIST HYMN BOOK.

The Evangelist Hymn Book is the title of a little work compiled by Elder H. R. Holinger, for use in revivals by our evangelists. The compiler says in his Preface:

"This little book is intended to be used by traveling ministers, and in out-of-the-way places, where the congregations are not supplied with regular church hymn books. Ministers can carry a supply with them, and have them distributed to all who wish to use them; at the close of the service announce that the books are for sale at five cents each; that those who wish to keep one will drop that amount into the collection basket, and those who do not wish to purchase them will drop the books into that receptacle. When the series of meetings closes the worn books can be taken to the next place, and so on until they are worn out. In this way it is hoped that the song service will be more intelligent and devoted, because all may have books, and it is believed that it may be made self-sustaining, financially."

It will be ready by Sept. 1st, and will be sold at five cents per copy, single, fifty cents per dozen, and four cents each in lots of twenty-five copies or more.

Now brethren, notify us how many you shall need, and we will know better how many copies to print.

Address,
THE BRETHREN PUB. HOUSE,
ASHLAND, OHIO.

The American nation has a double birth right—liberty and land. Its liberty it has guarded jealously, but until very recent years it seems to have been indifferent to the loss of its landed estate and ignorant of the method by which it has been diminished. A veteran legislator, the Hon. George W. Julian, who has given special attention to the acts disposing of our public lands, tells the story in a brief contribution to the North American Review for August. In the same number five medical authorities discuss the question, "Can Cholera be Averted?" Felix L. Oswald contributes a suggestive article on "The Animal Soul;" and the Rev. M. J. Savage in "A Profane View of the Sanctum," brings an indictment against the daily press. The other articles are one on "The Price of Gas," by Charles H. Botsford, one on "Temperance Reform Statistics," by Prof. W. J. Beecher, and the chapter of "Comments," by various writers, on articles in previous numbers.

Ashland College.

Ashland College will commence the school year of 1885—6 on August 11, with a full corps of competent teachers adapted to the work, and offers more advantages to students than ever before. The First Fall Term is specially adapted to the wants of teachers wishing to review, preparatory to opening winter schools.

The Courses of Study have been arranged to meet the demands for an education that will be of utility in practical life, and at a cost so low that all can avail themselves of the opportunity.

Brethren are specially invited to consider the claims and advantages of Ashland College, when choosing a place to send their children to school. Here the proper religious influences will be placed around them, and they will be expected to attend the regular religious services, conducted by Brethren, at the College Chapel, unless excused by their parents; and then, we should all patronize our own institution.

Sixteen Bushels in One Hour with a No. 2 "Eureka."

VERMONTVILLE, MICH., APRIL 1, 1885.

Ashland Mfg. Co.—

GENTS: I think your "Eureka" Clover Huller beats them all, and so do my customers. The first huller I sold hulled sixteen bushels of clean seed in one hour's time, and was run by men who never used your Huller before. It takes like hot cakes where it is known. Yours Truly,

GEO. J. LAMB.
